ROOSEVELT ON NAVY

President Speaks a Good Word on Behalf of American Sailors.

RECEPTION AT THE HOME OF MOODY.

Chief Executive Declares That Our Readiness On the Waters Is Essential to Maintain Our Honor Abroad.

Haverhill, Mass., Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt was greeted here by a crowd which packed the route through which he was driven from the station to Washington square, where he delivered a 20-minute address and filled all available space around the stand from which he spoke.

The decorations along the route were the most elaborate ever seen in this vicinity. Constant cheering prevailed from the time that the president arrived until he began his address and interruptions occurred while he spoke. The president said: "Naturally, at the home of Secretary Moody, I should like to say a word or two about the navy. You see that when one Massachusetts man would leave the navy department I had to find another Massachusetts man to take his place. I think whenever we touch on the navy we are sure of a hearty response from any American audience."

"The entire country is vitally interested in the navy, because an efficient navy of an adequate size is not only the best guarantee of peace, but it is also the surest means for seeing that if war does not come, the result shall be honorable to our good name and favorable to our national interests. Any great nation must be peculiarly sensitive to two things: Stain on the national honor at home and disgrace to the national arms abroad. Our honor at home, our home in domestic and internal affairs, is at all times in our own keeping and depends simply upon the national possession of an awakened public conscience. But the only way to make our honor as affected, not by our own deeds, but by the deeds of others, is by readiness in advance."

"In three great crises in our history during the 19th century, in the war of 1812, in the civil war and again in the Spanish war, the navy rendered to the nation services of literally incalculable worth. In the civil war we had to meet antagonists even more prepared at sea than we were. On both other occasions we encountered foreign foes and the fighting was done entirely by ships built long in advance and by officers and crews who had been trained during years of sea service for the supreme day which for their qualities were put to loyal test."

"It was this preparedness which was the true secret of the enormous difference in efficiency between our navy and the Spanish navy. Annapolis is, with the sole exception of its sister academy at West Point, the most typically democratic and American school of learning and preparation that there is in the entire country."

"There each man enters on his merits, stands on his merits, and graduates into a service where only his merit would enable him to be of value."

"The good work of building up the navy must go on without ceasing. The modern warship cannot with advantage be allowed to rust in disuse. It must be used in active service even in time of peace. This means that there must be a constant replacement of the ineffective by the effective. The work of building up and keeping up our navy is therefore one which needs our constant and unflinching vigilance."

"Our navy is now efficient; but we must be content with no ordinary degree of efficiency. Every effort must be made to bring it over nearer to perfection. In making such effort the prime factor is to have at the head of the navy such a man as Mr. Moody; and the next to bring home to our people as a whole the need of thorough and ample preparation in advance."

President at Lowell.

Lowell, Mass., Aug. 27.—For 25 minutes this city entertained the president of the United States and then watched him depart for New Hampshire and Maine, giving him a hearty cheer as the train pulled out. The president left Boston at 8:35 o'clock. On the run to this place the towns of West Medford, Winchester and North Billerica turned out immense crowds and gave a rousing cheer as the train passed by. At each place the president appeared on the platform and acknowledged the greetings. The special train arrived here at 9:19 a. m. and its arrival was signaled by the firing of a presidential salute by the local militia and the G. A. R. performed guard duty. The sidewalks about the station were thronged with people and the Common, which was the scene of the real reception, was filled with humanity. Acting Mayor Badger and a committee of the city government met the presidential party at the station and were presented by Charles M. Allen, former governor of Porto Rico. Arriving at the speaker's stand, the president was presented to the people in a brief speech by the acting mayor.

RAILROAD ROBBERS

Fall to Get Valuables After Holding Up a Train.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 27.—A Northern Pacific passenger train was held up at Sandpoint, Idaho, 65 miles east of here. The robbers, of whom there were seven, forced the engineer to stop the train, after which they uncoupled the baggage car. Then they compelled the engineer at the point of a revolver to pull up the track about three miles further, where they tried to wreck the baggage car with dynamite. The explosives failed to work and after spending 15 minutes with the car the robbers decamped, allowing the engineer to go back to the train with his engine. Two other bandits guarded the train, keeping the passengers inside by firing revolvers along the sides. No attempt was made to molest the passengers and after the engine came back the other robbers left and the train came on to Spokane. The train was in charge of Conductor William Gilbert of Helena and was heavily loaded.

What Corn Crop Needs.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Following is the agricultural department's weekly summary of crop conditions: As a whole, the weather conditions east of the Rocky mountains have not been favorable, being too cool in the northern districts eastward of the Missouri valley, with too much moisture in portions of the central valleys, while excessively hot in the southern states. Although cool, the conditions were fairly favorable for maturing crops in the Ohio valley and over the northern portion of the middle Atlantic states, as well as on the Pacific coast. Corn is greatly in need of warm, dry weather throughout the northern portion of the corn belt, where the abnormally cool weather of the past two weeks has greatly retarded its maturity.

Military Maneuvers.

Fisher's Island, N. Y., Aug. 27.—For several hours after midnight the searchlight of the army station at Napatree Point, off Watch Hill, exchanged signals with a light at Fort Trumbull, New London, presumably conveying information to the army officers regarding preparations for the war game between the army and navy which is to begin next Friday at midnight. Summer residents of this island have been deeply interested in the plans for the maneuvers and the presence of a large camp of artillery men among whom the strict discipline of actual war time is already enforced, has of late added to that interest.

Conspiracy Charged.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 27.—A decided change was made in the cases of Messrs. Hunter, Bickerstaff, Kauffer and Woodworth, of the Henderson-Ames company of Kalamazoo, who were charged with perjury in their testimony before the grand jury in state militia clothing fraud cases. The charge of perjury was withdrawn and one of conspiracy to defraud the state submitted therefore. The latter is the same charge that Colonel Ell R. Sutton, now a fugitive from justice was tried on.

Strike Threatened.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Grave possibilities of a strike that may tie up all the street railway lines of the west and north sides of this city confront the officials of the Union Traction company. By an overwhelming vote the local union of the Amalgamated association of employees refused to accept the proposition made by President Roach several days ago.

Death of Peter S. Hoe.

New York, Aug. 27.—Peter S. Hoe, the last surviving member of the original firm of R. Hoe & Co., manufacturers of printing presses, is dead at Upper Montclair, N. J., from heart disease. Mr. Hoe was born in New York 81 years ago. In 1890 he retired from the firm and has lived since then in New Jersey.

Primaries in South Carolina.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 27.—Democratic primaries are being held throughout this state for the nomination of governor and state house officials. State legislators and congressional representatives are to be named and a successor to United States Senator McLaurin will be selected.

Rome, Aug. 27.—The court circular announces that Queen Helena expects her accouchment in December.

TURMOIL IS QUIETED

In the Panther Creek District by the Appearance of Soldiers.

NON-UNION MEN HELD BY STRIKERS.

Another Budget of News In Regard to the Actions of Miners and Operators in the Anthracite Region.

Summit Hill, Pa., Aug. 27.—Excitement prevails throughout Panther Creek district. At daybreak the strikers assembled to prevent non-union men from going to work. Anticipating trouble, Major Gearhart sent two companies of soldiers in trolley cars from camp in Militia park to this place and their presence prevented a possible outbreak. Several non-unionists had been attacked and the town was in a turmoil. The soldiers escorted the workmen through the mob that had collected and placed them in safety on the cars which carried them to their work.

Vessey's Visit.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 27.—Charles S. Vessey, the mysterious visitor who came to this city and held a two hours' conference with President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers returned to New York. He declined to say who he represented or what his mission was. Mr. Mitchell says Mr. Vessey's visit to town had nothing to do with a settlement of the coal strike. The authorities of the Lackawanna company threaten to enter suit against the authorities of Dunree borough. It is alleged that a number of constables of the borough arrested two employees of the company without cause.

Non-Union Men Turned Back.

Hazleton, Pa., Aug. 27.—Suspecting that another attempt would be made to resume operations at the No. 40 colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, many strikers' pickets were stationed along all of the approaches to the mine. Most of the non-unionists who attempted to reach the colliery were turned back, but no serious trouble occurred. Three strikers who are alleged to have participated in the riot at No. 40 colliery, are under arrest. Other arrests are expected.

Conference of Operators.

New York, Aug. 27.—President George F. Baer of the Philadelphia and Reading road was in conference with J. P. Morgan, presumably to discuss the coal strike. Mr. Steel, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., and Mr. Stablesbury, the Philadelphia partner of Mr. Morgan's firm, were present at the conference.

Mate Cadoza Lost.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—The fishing schooner Stanley, which has returned from Bering sea, reports that on May 18 Second Mate Cadoza was lost during a storm in Bristol Bay. His dory, waterlogged and empty, was picked up several days later. On June 8 four dories were hidden from sight by a dense fog. One of them, that of Martin Scofin, was never seen again and Scofin is supposed to have been lost. Another of the missing dories, containing John Quist, was picked up by the Stanley after an absence of four days and three nights. Quist was feeble from hunger and exposure.

Sailors' Club House.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—The movement in behalf of the establishment of a club house for United States sailors at Vallejo has progressed so satisfactory that the committee in charge felt justified in having a design prepared of the building. It will be situated on a lot opposite the Mare Island navy yard, on land purchased for that purpose with the prize money obtained by Captain B. H. McCalla of the United States navy during the Spanish-American war, which he set aside for this object.

Russia's Foreign Trade.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—The official report on Russia's foreign trade for the first four months of 1902 shows the American importations to be virtually the same as in 1900, apparently indicating that Russian buyers have become fully convinced it is better to buy American machinery in spite of the discriminating duty against it. The comparative figures for 1900, 1901 and 1902, are respectively $8,980,000, $7,158,000, and $8,913,500. In the meantime German and British imports have fallen.

Headed For Berlin.

Rome, Aug. 27.—King Victor Emmanuel left Racconigi for Berlin. He was given a hearty farewell by the crowds. Signor Prinetti, the minister of foreign affairs, will join the king later on.

GENERAL MILES

Will Not Interfere With Subordinates in Philippines.

Washington, Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt's order to General Miles to visit the Philippines reached the war department in the mail. General Miles is instructed to "proceed about Sept. 15 to the Philippines to inspect the army there with reference to instruction, discipline and supplies." It is the understanding that in that capacity, though of superior rank, General Miles will not interfere in any way with either General Chaffee or his successor, General Davis, in the direction of the army in Philippines. He will critically examine the condition as he finds them, devoting his attention entirely to matters of army administration and not to political affairs, and the results of his work will be embodied in a set of reports. Some such work as this was undertaken a few months ago by Inspector General Breckenridge, who has prepared a voluminous set of reports, which have not yet been published, making suggestions for the betterment of the military service at every point from transportation down to discipline, accoutments and supplies.

In the absence from this city of General Miles no one at army headquarters is fully authorized to discuss details of his projected trip. But it is believed here that he will be accompanied by at least two members of his staff, namely, Lieutenant Colonel Whitney and Colonel Reber, the latter his son-in-law.

Colonel Maus, who is the inspecting officer of the staff, also may accompany General Miles if his health, which is somewhat impaired at present, permits.

Leaving about Sept. 15, and allowing a month for a tour of inspection of the principal islands of the archipelago, General Miles should return to Washington early in January, next.

The transports Crook, Sheridan and Thomas are now lying at San Francisco. The Sheridan will sail on the first of September and the Thomas, according to present arrangements, will start on Sept. 16. In case the Thomas should not be ready to sail on that date, the Crook would go in her stead. All of these vessels have fine accommodations, and are well equipped to make the voyage of General Miles a very comfortable one.

Constitutional Question Involved.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—The federal courts have been called upon to determine the constitutionality of certain provisions of the treaty between this country and France proclaimed on Aug. 12, 1853. The issue has arisen out of the imprisonment of Francois Leberne, a French sailor, by Chief of Police Wiltman, in compliance with the request of French consul, Henry Ballemagne, who invoked as authority a clause of the treaty named which confers exclusive jurisdiction over French merchant vessels on French consular officers. Ex-Governor James H. Budd, at the request of the Sailors' union, applied to Judge DeKaven, in the United States district court, for a writ of habeas corpus for Leberne on the main issue that the treaty under which he has been arrested and is now confined is contrary to the constitution of the United States.

No Grounds For Divorce.

New York, Aug. 27.—Justice Spring of the New York supreme court, sitting in the appellate division, has handed down a decision in which he holds that gross extravagance and forgery committed by a wife to raise money do not in this state constitute a cause of action for a limited divorce, and he therefore refuses to reverse the action of the lower court which dismissed the complaint in a suit brought on the grounds mentioned. In discussing the case Justice Spring is quoted as having said: "A husband takes a wife for better or worse and because she does not conform her expenditure to his notions of economy is not a ground for casting her from him."

Engaged to Marry.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—Gossip is going the rounds to the effect that the Grand Duke Alexandrovitch, known outside his own country as the czarvitz, is engaged to marry the second daughter of the Grand Duchess Anastasia, of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, the Duchess Cecile Augustine Marie, who is of the same refined, delicate type of beauty as her sister, who married Prince Christian of Denmark. The Grand Duke Michael celebrates his 24th birthday Nov. 24 next and the Duchess Cecile enters her 17th year after this month.

Bombarded La Guaira.

Washington, Aug. 27.—United States Minister Bowen at Caracas, Venezuela, advises the state department by telegraph that a government warship recently arriving at La Guaira reports for two days she bombarded Ciudad Boliver, after which she withdrew, having exhausted her ammunition.

CONFERENCE ON CODE.

Ohio Legislators Study the Problem of Municipal Government.

OTHER MEASURES ARE INTRODUCED.

Efforts to Restrict the Business to Suggestion of the Governor Are Futile—Scrap in the Senate.

Columbus, O., Aug. 27.—There were legislative conferences all over town on the code bill. Upon the invitation of Speaker McKinnon, a number of the members of the house met in parlor F at the Chittenden hotel, where they discussed plans for the proper consideration of the code in the house.

Speaker McKinnon gave out a statement in which he agrees with Senator Foraker that the Nash code or any other arbitrary form of government for all the cities of the state, will be a failure. Mr. McKinnon said:

"The practical operation of the governor's code will demonstrate that it is unsuited to all the numerous municipalities to which it will apply. The only way to permanently solve the problem is the adoption of an amendment to the constitution, permitting the classification of cities. There should be four grades, based upon populations of 5,000, 25,000, 100,000 and all above 100,000. Then we should have a sufficient variety of governmental systems to fully meet the diversified necessities of every municipal division in the state. The resolution should be submitted to the voters at the election to be held in the fall of 1903."

The introduction of a bill in the senate, by Mr. Thompson, bearing upon a subject, other than the code and the repeal of the Royer act, which were recommended by the governor as the only two which should be considered at the special session, provoked a lively discussion and the settlement of the question as to whether the doors should be opened to all sorts of legislation, was postponed until Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

As soon as the clerk had finished reading the code bill, introduced by Senator Longworth, and the reading of which occupied nearly the entire morning session, Mr. Thompson secured the recognition of the chair and introduced a bill to repeal the Jones law enacted last winter, which relieved railroad companies from maintaining are lights at railroad crossings in cities, and throwing this expense upon municipalities.

Finally on Mr. Longworth's own motion, further consideration of his motion to reject the bill was postponed until Wednesday at 11 a. m. The vote on this motion at that time will determine whether the doors will be opened to all sorts of legislation.

In the house a resolution was adopted to provide for a committee of 17 to whom all bills should be referred. This means that the old committee on municipal affairs, of which Mr. Cummings was chairman, will not get a "whack" at the code. The speaker will announce the appointment later.

When introduction of bills were called for Mr. Guerin sent a bill to the clerk's desk to re-enact the supreme court bill. This measure was read for its second time and referred to the special committee. Then Mr. Guerin introduced two other bills, each affecting appeals and pleadings. The act, carries out the original plans of Judge Royer, and makes eligible to appeals all the cases made ineligible by the passage of the unfortunate measure.

When Franklin county was called, Mr. McNamee surprised the house with the familiar face of his old voluntary relief bill. This is the bill several times put to sleep by the regular session. It seeks to abolish the voluntary relief systems in vogue on the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroads.

Mr. Comings introduced the Nash code bill, which was sent to the clerk's desk and read at once. Mr. York will introduce the state board of commerce municipal code bill.

Senator Hanna arrived in Columbus, where he will confer with Governor Nash and leading Republican members of the state legislature in reference to the new municipal code being now under consideration. It is understood that the senator will use his influence against certain provisions of the bill.

Robbed at Saratoga.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Fred West of Boston is dead at Saratoga from the effects of being sandbagged. Mr. West had just emerged from a clubhouse near Broadway when he was set upon by two men who beat him down and emptied his pockets of several thousand dollars.

ENORMOUS MILITARY EXPENSE.

The cost of the regular army was, in 1897, nearly $40,000,000. At the end of the last fiscal year, June 30, the bill was $117,000,000, or nearly four times larger than was that of five years ago.

The figures are appalling. Look at them for a moment and reflect upon what they mean. It is this: Nearly one-half of all the money raised by the tariff on foreign goods—$800,000 per day—is eaten up by the army. To put it in another way, every man, woman and child in the Republic is taxed nearly $2.15 each to support the military establishment.

THE COST OF LIVING.

While the Republicans are shouting prosperity and telling what grand things the tariff has done for the laboring man there comes a discordant note from Massachusetts. The Bureau of Statistics of that State was not willing to subserve the Republican Campaign Bureau at the expense of truth, as a branch of the Census Office has done, and its statistics show actual conditions instead of faked figures. In reviewing the report of that body, the Chicago Tribune says:

"The bureau finds that the cost of living in 1902 has increased noticeably as compared with 1897. There has been an increase of 11.16 per cent. in the price of food, of 16.07 per cent. in the prices of dry goods and boots, of 52.43 per cent. in rents, and of 9.78 per cent. in the price of fuel. As a consequence, absolutely necessary items of food, clothing, rent and fuel which cost now $683.84 would have been purchasable in 1897 for $586.90."

Commenting on the review the Tribune adds: "The Massachusetts workingman is not so well off from the point of view of the cost of living as he was in 1897." When it is remembered that the Tribune is a staunch Republican paper, that statement comes as a confession. The Dingley tariff was not in effect in 1897. The rise in the cost of living is the outgrowth of that tariff, and the work of the true s fostered and protected by that tariff. It has proven the statement of the Democrats that the tariff raises the prices of protected articles and that the manufacturer gets the benefit of the tariff, while the only benefit the laboring man gets out of that tariff is the privilege of paying $683.84 to-day for the year's living that cost him only $586.90 in 1897. That is a privilege and a benefit that very few laboring men desire to have long continued.

SHAW'S ADMISSION.

Secretary Shaw, in his latest campaign speech, says: "The protective tariff is the parent of conditions that make it profitable for capital to combine." Yet in the very next breath he declares that he will not admit that the tariff is "the mother of trusts." If the Secretary will tell the people what more than a hair-splitting difference there is, he will solve the problem of what difference there is betwixt tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee. Mr. Shaw cannot be the man with the intelligence the people give him the credit of possessing, without knowing that those two statements imply the same thing and that it is but a mincing of words and splitting of hairs to deny the fact. The trusts are with us. They have grown up and waxed strong under Republican rule. If the Republicans claim credit for the conditions which prevail now, they must also take the credit for the trusts. The people are in no frame of mind to be dallied with. They know that the Republican leaders of the West have acknowledged when there was no campaign on hand that the tariff on our manufactured products which are subjects of export is uncalled for, and that it enables those who control the market on those articles to extort exorbitant prices from the American people. When Mr. Babcock tells them what these tariff duties have done for the country they will answer him in his own words, "How can such a policy be defended?" They know too that the Republican leaders in Congress do not believe in revision and that the bills that have been offered with revision in view have, without a single exception, been strangled to death on the spot without ever being given an opportunity to come before the House or Senate.

They have a daily pocket-book demonstration of the fact that "protected" articles all come higher now than they did in 1897, and that nearly every trust-controlled article in the category costs more now than it did five years ago. And they know that the Republican Campaign Textbook defends the trusts. The American people are as intelligent a class of people as there is in the wide world, and they will not be slow to see that the Republican party is but dallying with them when it goes to splitting hairs over whether the protective tariff is "the mother of trusts" or whether it is "the parent of conditions that leads capital to combine."

The game between St. Louis and Philadelphia was postponed on account of rain.

The Maysville and Georgetown ball clubs will play Monday, Sept. 1st, at the East End park. The Ohioans are composed of a lot of fast players, and recently gave the locals their first defeat by a score of 3 to 1. The Sixth ward park has been cleaned and everything will be in tip-top shape. The management has gone to a large expense in fixing up grounds and in getting a first-class team here, and a large crowd should go out and help the boys along, and if there is a liberal patronage shown the Bond Hills will then be booked for a game. Ladies will be admitted free Monday. Prof. Walker will be out with his band and give the boys a sendoff. The management will be out to-day to receive donations for paying for fixing up the park.

OUR WAY OF

SELLING CORSETS

Is to suppress all sensational statements—to deal in facts, not in figures of speech. We substantiate every word we put in type. We aim to sell corsets as if we sold nothing else. THE P. N. CORSETS are unexcelled in three great points—they Bend Freely, Fit Snugly, Wear Economically. The stays are of high grade material and each is moulded to fit the curved lines of the body, making the corsets fit with a comfortable nicety that requires no "breaking in." We have twelve different styles of the P. N. which assures fitting any figure whether slight or full and long, short or medium waist. The corsets are nearly all straight front, but we have the less pronounced styles for those who want them. If you prefer a light or heavy corset you can easily choose as we have many models in both coutille and batiste. See them! That's better than reading their good qualities.

Better corsets at better prices can't be found.

Kill the Cattle Flies.

Many a pound of beef and gallon of milk are lost through stock having to fight flies.

The fretfulness and irritation caused by these pests is one of the worst foes to fat either in milk or flesh.

Flies used to be considered a necessary evil, but modern methods have come to the rescue with a preparation that can not possibly harm the animal, but makes it immune to flies. No fly will attack an animal protected by

FLY KILLER OIL.

It is equally effective against all kinds of flies, insects and vermin that annoy stock.

MODERN ICE PIERS.

City Council Votes the Necessary Rights and Work on the Piers Will be Commenced Soon.

At the special meeting of the City Council last evening an order was adopted, unanimously, making the necessary grant to insure the construction of the ice piers at this point. The city simply releases her right to collect wharfage from water craft seeking protection from ice in the harbor that will be afforded by the piers.

The city never has collected wharfage in such cases, so the grant is simply a formal recognition of a long established custom. It was necessary, however, to relinquish this right to the national government to insure the erection of the piers. The relinquishment is to cover the harbor from mouth of Limestone to a point just below Lower street,—a distance of 3,005 feet.

Captain Phister pointed out the advantages that would result to the city from these piers.

It is thought that work on the piers will be commenced in the next week or so. They will be of crushed rock and cement, and will be up-to-date in design and construction.

The Misses Hays, of Hayswood Seminary, will return from Chautauqua, N. Y., on Sept. 2nd where they have spent the entire season studying in the line of their chosen profession. They propose to make the coming year the most successful in the career of the institution. Special facilities are offered to those who are preparing for a higher education in the study of higher mathematics and a course of German and Latin such as will prepare them to enter Eastern schools. Hayswood will open for the fall session Sept. 15th and any desired information concerning the course of study or terms can be obtained by calling at the seminary after September 2nd.

The Germantown fair begins to-day and closes Friday.

The Knights of Pythias now have over 540,000 affiliated members. Ohio has 60,115 members, Indiana 42,937, while Kentucky and West Virginia fall under 10,000. In the Endowment Rank in two years $3,089,977 in death claims has been paid.

Attorney C. C. Calhoun, of Lexington, has filed an appeal with the Controller of the Treasury from the action of the Auditor of the War Department in allowing Kentucky the sum of $67,960.65 in payment for Spanish-American war soldiers' services. A difference of about $30,000 is claimed for the soldiers.

TEACHERS' TALKS.

Subjects Discussed the Second Day of the Mason County Institute—Thursday's Program.

The institute opened Tuesday with a large attendance of teachers. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. R. E. Moss.

The work of the forenoon was begun by the discussion of "Reading" by Miss Ethel McMillan. She ably advocates the use of the "word method" in teaching reading. Miss Ella Wallace next gave some very valuable suggestions as to how teachers may secure natural reading. The discussion of this subject was closed by Prof. Withers, who showed the great psychological value of the "object" or "word" method of teaching reading.

After a short recess, Prof. J. W. Peterson began his very interesting work on "Inductive Studies in Browning." Prof. Peterson is a specialist on Literature and Composition, and his practical methods are very valuable.

Miss Bettie Hannah next gave a very interesting talk, showing how much arithmetic should be taught in the first year of school. Miss Hannah believes in the old rule of "making haste slowly." The discussion of arithmetic was then closed in a very interesting way by Prof. Withers. Supt. Wells then adjourned the institute until 1:30 p. m.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The afternoon session began by the discussion of "Physiology and Hygiene" by Dr. Leslie Brand, who gave some very useful hints to teachers on these subjects, and on the whole his talk was very interesting and instructive.

Prof. Peterson next gave a very interesting talk on these subjects, after which the subject of "Grammar" was discussed at length by Miss Waller, Prof. Withers and Prof. Peterson.

The institute adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

Prof. Peterson's lecture at the court house last night was highly interesting and very instructive. He is a pleasing speaker, conversational largely in his style and delivery. His talk was on his travels in Germany, France and Denmark. Prof. Peterson paid a glowing tribute to King Oscar, Emperor William and Martin Luther during his talk. He thinks the present Emperor of Germany and President Roosevelt are very much alike in their most striking characteristics.

Reading, history and language lessons will be considered Thursday morning.

Rev. Geo. P. Taubman, of Portsmouth, but formerly of Mayslick, will address the Tri-State Christian Endeavor Union at Ashland, Sept. 11th, on "Christian Citizenship."

Senator W. H. Cox, Messrs. Henry W. Ray, Byron Rudy, E. W. Hutchison, T. P. Boyce and Dr. Harover were last night elected by DeKalb Lodge No. 12 as representatives to the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, I. O. O. F., which meets at Hopkinsville the second Tuesday in October. Mr. H. C. Curran was recommended for District Deputy, to succeed himself.

THE CROP OUTLOOK.

Corn Above the Average in Kentucky—Tobacco Improved, But Irregular. Fruits and Potatoes.

[Weekly Bulletin of the Weather Bureau, Aug. 26.]

Showers visited nearly all sections of the State during the first of the week; this was followed by dry and very cool weather. The rainfall was very beneficial, especially in the drought-stricken counties of the south-central and western districts.

Corn shows considerable improvement. The drought had nearly ruined some of the early fields in the dry counties, but the later planting is quite promising. Warm weather is needed to mature and ripen it. The crop for the whole State will probably be above the average.

Tobacco has improved considerably, but is not in a satisfactory condition. It is very irregular, some fields being fairly good and others very poor. The burley districts report more favorable conditions than the dark tobacco counties of the western section, but the crop, as a whole, will be far below the average in yield and quality. Cutting has begun in the early fields.

Special reports on apples and peaches were received this week. They indicate that peaches are practically a failure, not averaging more than 5 per cent. of a full crop. Apples are very poor, probably falling below 25 per cent. of an average crop. Breckinridge and Meade counties are about the only counties reporting good apple crops.

Gardens, pastures and meadows are improving since the rains. Irish potatoes are very good and sweet potatoes very fair. There is a fair hemp crop and cutting has begun. Sorghum is doing well.

Plowing for winter wheat is progressing and farm work is well up.

POYNTEZ BROS. are the only Maysville distillers selling pure liquors by the quart, gallon or barrel, direct from distillery to consumer. Seven-year-old whisky $2 per gallon. Age and quality guaranteed. Get the best. Office 126 Market street—Watson's old stand.

Rev. Moss, of Maysville, preached at Mill Creek the third Sunday night to a large audience.

The protracted meeting at Mill Creek will begin the fifth Sunday morning, conducted by Elders Eugene Clarkson and George W. Kemper, formerly pastor of Central Christian Church of Lexington. Mr. Nelson Weedon will be the organist.

The newspapers of a town are like looking glasses, and you see yourselves as others see you. If your town is doing business, the local paper will show it in its advertising columns, but if the merchants are scared, spiritless men, with stores of goods all jumbled together and no business doing, the newspaper will show it by lack of space they take. If you want settlers in your town or if you want to make your town a live town, the best way to do it is to keep your advertisement constantly before the public in your local paper. Who wants to settle in a dead town, whose merchants are too scared to let outside people know there are any businesses in the town? For live merchants watch the ads. In these columns.—Titusville (Fla.) Advocate.

Mrs. Wm. Moreland and son Edgar, of Carlisle, who formerly resided in this neighborhood, came down to attend the fair and were guests of Mrs. Moreland's daughters, Mrs. Douglass and Mrs. Daly, of Maysville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doyle, of Bowman Springs, Fleming County, were pleasant guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Williams during the fair.

Messrs. Wm. Kratz and Wm. Beigle were guests of relatives here during the fair, returning to their home at West Union Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloup, of Fairview, spent a few days last week with the family of his cousin, Thomas Sloup. They accidentally met in the city and had not seen each other for twenty years.

PITHY POINTS.

Mr. Castner will wish his lot had been east somewhere else before he gets through discharging his barrel against Jim Kehoe.

Mr. Castner doubtless has been a long time accumulating his "barrel," but it will surprise him what a short time it will take to unload it.

Mr. Castner must have been east of a very heroic mold to undertake the job that he has of wrestling the seat in Congress from Jim Kehoe.

Those chaps about Maysville were more witty than the young man from the mountains and dumped the nomination upon his unwary shoulders.

Mr. Castner might have east about in many different ventures for a disposition of his barrel without striking any risk as hazardous as he will find in Jim Kehoe.

The gentleman from Boyd couldn't have been doing business with much of a "rush" to "east" it aside for the empty honor of a nomination against Mr. Kehoe.

River News.

Towboats are scarce and in great demand at Pittsburgh. The last acquisition to the Pittsburgh fleet is Capt. Tom Hall's Jack Frost, which has become the property of the People's Coal Company. The Jutties are at the head of the People's Coal Company, which is said to be the stiffest opposition the river combine has.

Supt. J. F. Ellison, of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company, who favors reservoirs to locks and dams, says that the latter system will never be installed thoroughly by the Government. His plan, like that suggested many years ago by Government engineers, is to construct at the head of each of Ohio's tributaries a reservoir where water could be retained and the streams flushed occasionally, giving navigable stages the year round.

During an altercation at Germantown Sunday night James Pollock was slashed across the throat with a razor by Jim Johnson, colored. Pollock was getting along all right at last accounts.
